LOTUS

NINETEEN SIXTY-TWO

F O R E W O R D

The 1962 Lorus is an attempt to bring to you, the students of Peace College, a record of the year's achievements and activities.

The staff feels that every girl is essential to the life of the college, as everyone contributes something of herself, be it large or small, towards the well-being of the student body as a whole. Because this annual is for you, the student, we have attempted to preserve this year for you in a friendly, informal manner, that which is representative of the atmosphere prevalent among the students.

We, the staff of the 1962 LOTUS, sincerely hope that in the years to come this book will bring to your mind a vivid recollection of the joys, pleasures, and thrills that the 1961-62 year has brought to Peace College.

THE EDITOR

Love those hotdogs!

Pluck it, Elvis!

We will never forget . . .

Fall

September thirteen was the very first day,
Embarked on adventure, uncertain—yet gay.

The fountain was dancing,
Unused to her spree;
Her music was playing
A welcome to me.

December came softly with gifts wrapped in snow,

And winter was with us—soon homeward we'd go.

The fountain was sleeping,

Embraced with the white;

Invisible, shapeless,

Far out of sight.

Winter

the knowledge gained . . .

Say English is a crip?!

My favorite sport—hockey!

Hey, what do I do now?!

You name it!

the wonderful times . . .

Spring

Then spring came to visit, distribute good cheer,
Our laughter and smiles seemed to prove she was here.

The fountain was covered
With flowers and sun,
Fulfilling a promise:
Her song had begun.

I doubt it!

Good luck on getting a phone!

and friendships developed . . .

Day

How well I remember the birth of each day,
As sunlight streamed forward with hope in each ray.

The fountain was merry
Amidst all the glow,
She frolicked and gurgled,
Now fast and then slow.

The sun became sleepy and fell from its height,
Oh, daylight was dying—and on came the night.

The fountain now silent
Stands somber and still;
How solemn her promise:
“When dawn sings, I will.”

MR. WILLIAM PRIMROSE MCPHERSON

To a devoted husband and son, to a loving and understanding father, to a meticulously careful workman in his chosen profession, to a consecrated churchman, a Christian gentleman in the truest sense of the word, to a person of great enthusiasm and deepest loyalty, to a man of demonstrated ability, quiet forcefulness, and tenacity of purpose, to one bound to Peace College by intimate family ties—his grandfather having served as member and chairman of the Board of Trustees, his father having served as a Trustee, and his mother and sister having been students here—to a faithful member of the Board of Trustees himself since 1947, acting as Chairman since 1953—during probably the most trying period in the history of the College—to the “friend in need,” whose uncompromising stand for what he knew to be right in the recent struggle to keep Peace College in Raleigh, to

The 1962 Lorus pays tribute to the outstanding faculty of Peace College. The students are grateful to the faculty for exerting both their knowledge and their friendship. The interest that has been shown in regard to the intellectual, spiritual, and social life of the individual student has been of vital importance to the success of Peace College.

The faculty and administration this year have shown their love and interest in our school by remaining loyal to Peace when loyalty was most needed. It is because of this service and devotion that we want to pay you—the faculty and administration—this special tribute.

Through the past years there has been an ever-increasing interest in the establishment of a Christian community within our college. This year, this community has been the goal set before the students. In trying to attain this goal, the student body has, in its activities, worked together as a whole rather than as separate parts of the whole.

As considerable public interest was drawn to Peace this year, the enthusiastic response of the girls was of great importance. As the first court decision was made in favor of Peace, the girls reacted with an exciting victory celebration. "We prayed and we stayed" was the theme of this demonstration.

It is the student body that makes the school; it is their spirit that has made this year a rich and profitable one.

Through the medium of organizations, not only a fuller college life but a fuller life in general is offered to the individual. Extra-curricular activities are as much a part of the education offered at Peace College as is the knowledge presented in the classrooms.

Organizations at Peace afford an equal opportunity to each student to progress and grow through work and service and, in turn, to make our college grow also. Our student clubs teach us how to work in a group, how to accept and carry out the viewpoints of others, and how to co-operate to achieve a common goal.

The organizations of Peace, whether religious, social, or educational, need the students; and the students need them.

ORGANIZATIONS

Ann Raglan Stamps
President

Student Government

The students at Peace are proud to be led by such an outstanding person as "Rags" Stamps. We hope that in the coming college years the students of Peace College will be as united as the student body of 1961-62.

Peace Girls,

A government's success or failure has and will always depend upon the people living under the government. Here at Peace there is no exception. For the year 1961-62 the attitude of the girls has been one of ambition and cooperation. The goals were high; yet, by working as a united body, faculty and students together, we accomplished those things which could never have been possible had we been divided.

We are not perfect, and in our Student Government we have "left undone those things which we ought to have done." Yet we see our mistakes and have profited by them. Responsibility has been dealt to every girl this year; and, through the acceptance of responsibility by every one of us, we have climbed the ladder to success.

". . . the students of Peace College desire to assume, individually and collectively, a responsibility for the conduct of students in their college life. It is believed that such responsibility, if given to the students, will make for growth in character and power and will promote loyalty to the best interests of the college."

Sincerely,

RAGS STAMPS

RESIDENT GROUP CHAIRMEN

The Resident Group Chairmen are in charge of keeping the boarding students informed on the revision of old Guides for Living, as well as new rules which are passed by the Student Council. They seek to promote a spirit of unity and community concern among the girls on their halls.

The Chairmen are elected in the spring of the preceding year by the resident students, and they preside over all hall meetings of the resident students.

Ellen Jones
Chairman

NON-RESIDENT GROUP CHAIRMEN

The Non-Resident Group Chairmen are elected each spring by the non-resident students. They meet once every two weeks to discuss any student government problem which arises and to voice opinions on them.

These Chairmen try to become personally acquainted with every girl in her Group so that she can be of assistance to the girls in solving problems that arise.

Lou Sherron
Chairman

RECREATION COUNCIL

The purpose of the Recreation Council is to promote good sportsmanship, fellowship, and physical efficiency among the students. The Council sponsors planned recreation and athletic activities throughout the year in which all of the students are invited to participate. At the end of the year they award a Peace letter to the top ten per cent of the girls participating in these activities during the year.

The Recreation Council is elected annually by the student body and have a tremendous task to carry out. They deserve much credit for the planning of parties and competitive sports which they sponsor throughout the year.

Peace Student Christian Association

Becky Jo Greene
President

One of the major aims of Peace College is to promote a wholesome religious atmosphere. With this in mind the Peace Student Christian Association, which is composed of all the Peace students, is the organization that directs the religious activities.

The Peace Student Christian Association Cabinet consists of twelve girls, who are the chairman and members of the various committees; and it is responsible for planning certain outstanding activities during the year.

The Big Sister—Little Sister program, which is designed by the Peace Student Christian Association, is to help the new students become more familiar with Peace.

Religious Emphasis Week is another outstanding event which is headed by the Peace Student Christian Association. It is observed for the purpose of leading students to faith in God through Jesus Christ by promoting growth in Christian faith and character.

The Peace Student Christian Association Cabinet selects a project and a goal which the students, faculty, and administration try to attain. This is known as the Week of Sharing.

Other remembered activities of the year are the Thanksgiving baskets for the maids, Vesper programs, Morning Watch, Hall Prayers, Hut discussions, Peanut Week, and World Day of Prayer. It is with a great desire to serve God and with a love for Him that these undertakings of the Peace Student Christian Association are carried out.

The Honor Court, being the main judicial branch of the Student Government at Peace College, tries all cases of violation of the Honor Code. The Honor Pledge which a student signs at the beginning of each year places her on her honor not to lie, not to cheat, not to steal, to abide by faculty regulations, and to report her own or another's violation of the Honor Code. The standing members of the Honor Court are the President, the Secretary, the President of the Student Government Association, and the President of the Peace Student Christian Association. The temporary members are chosen from the senior, junior, and preparatory classes and must have been on the Honor Roll at the end of the preceding grading period.

Throughout the year at Peace the Honor Court strives to raise the moral and social standards of each student. The Honor System, which is made possible by the co-operation of the student body, has become an essential part of our college life, thereby making each girl feel closer to Peace and helping her to develop morally, spiritually, and socially.

ALPHA PI EPSILON

The Tau Chapter of Alpha Pi Epsilon was inaugurated at Peace College on January 7, 1942. Its main objective is to professionalize the status of the college-trained secretary. Membership in this society is restricted to students of superior scholarship.

Mary Frances Dean
President

PHI THETA KAPPA

Phi Theta Kappa, the National Junior College Honorary Scholastic Society, was organized to give recognition to those deserving students with leadership qualities and scholastic abilities. To be eligible for membership, a student must be approved by the faculty as a good citizen of the College community and, at the time of election, must be within the upper ten per cent, scholastically, of the college enrollment. The members of this organization cultivate fellowship among the students, and endeavor to foster a spirit of devotion to the College and to scholarly ideals.

Gamma Phi is the chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Peace. Its colors are blue and gold, and the torch is the symbol of the society.

Joy Johnson
President

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society recognizes members of the preparatory classes who have excelled in scholarship, leadership, character, and service to others.

Before being selected for membership, a student must have at least a "B" average and must be approved by the faculty, by present members of the society, and by the presidents of the Student Government and the Honor Court.

Rho Delta Chi

As Rho's, we strive to uphold honor and loyalty and to serve our school to the best of our ability.

Our rush party, with music by "The Corvettes," was a tremendous success. The club also decorated for the Inter-Society Dance, using Candy-Land as the theme.

Because we helped two needy families, supplying them with toys, clothes, and food, Christmas had a special meaning for the Rho's.

This year has indeed been successful for the Rho's.

Lee Croom, President; Susan Littlefield, Vice-President; Brenda Fountain, Secretary-Treasurer.

Pi Theta Mu

Larue Jones, President; Donna Ringgold, Vice-President; Joyce Allen, Secretary; Margaret Pierce, Treasurer.

Pi Theta Mu Society is one of the outstanding organizations at Peace College. This society is centered around parties, bake sales, and a beach trip. These activities promote friendship among its members. The club also achieves its goal by supporting school activities and projects which provide both fellowship and recreation for the Pi's.

Rush this year was a great success, resulting in one of the largest pledge classes ever. The whole society worked together with the other societies and helped to make the Inter-Society Dance one to remember.

Day students constitute a large part of our student body, and the joint activities of the societies enable the day students and the resident students to become better acquainted.

Sigma Phi Kappa

"Modine Says—Go Sig" was the over-all theme carried out at the Sig rush party October 27, 1961. The Rec Room was decorated with funny papers with the theme carried out on them, and everyone danced to the music of the Corvettes.

The "Sig" pledge class made an all-time record this year of 106 members!

The Inter-Society Dance was held on December 2, 1961, at the Woman's Club. The Sigs helped with the refreshments and with selecting the I.F.C.'s as the combo for the evening.

During the Easter season the Sigs gave a party for the orphans from the Methodist Orphanage.

1962

The LOTUS staff presents this annual in hopes that the students and faculty may find as much pleasure in reading and keeping it as the staff has had in preparing and publishing it.

Long hours were spent in the preparation of this book; many breathless moments came in the rush of last minute copy and pictures to be taken. After the work was done, we sat back to await the arrival of a final copy. The book is finally a reality.—We hope you like it.

All this could not have been done without the aid of Dottie Hicks and her business staff. Under her able direction her staff functioned smoothly and efficiently.

PEACE TIMES

Since our newspaper, the Peace Times, is such an essential part of our school and our school activities, it could easily be compared to a fine football team where each player fully realizes the importance of perfect teamwork and co-operation to score a winning game. So it is with our newspaper staff. The reporters work diligently to collect information for the stories in their own individual assignments, being sure that the facts are accurate. This requires patience, tact, and sometimes requires interviews with several people to get all the details for the story. Then, too, each reporter, as well as each staff member, is constantly looking and listening for news which will not only make interesting reading, but be of interest to all the students. Therefore, many types of copy are used for the Peace Times.

The Publications Room is a scene of co-operation and activity as the paper has its beginning and in the wind-ups to meet the deadline for the paper to go to press.

When the paper has at last gone to press, each staff member feels a deep pride in a job well done. The members forget the hard work and headaches and remember the fine team work and school spirit, which not only the staff of the Peace Times possesses, but also Peace students.

Features here at Peace College are part of our tradition as old as the school itself. We are proud of these girls and their honors and consider their election as one of the highlights of the school year.

To be elected "Miss Peace" is one of the highest honors obtainable at our college. The May Queen and her Court are presented each year in our annual May Day program. Our Outstanding Seniors are girls who have contributed greatly of their energy and skill in their years at Peace. The Marshals assist in Vespers and other special events of our college.

It is our pleasure to present these girls, who represent a vital part of life here at Peace College.

On May 3, 1962, our May Queen, Susan Pinyoun, and her Court reigned over the annual May Day festivities. The Queen wore a beautiful white gown. Her attendants wore gorgeous lace dresses in pastel shades of green, blue, yellow, and pink.

The theme of this year's May Day program was "The Life of Pamela Peace." This theme was carried out in dances telling of "Pamela's" first Christmas, her first day at school, her high school graduation, and many of her other experiences until she graduated from Peace.

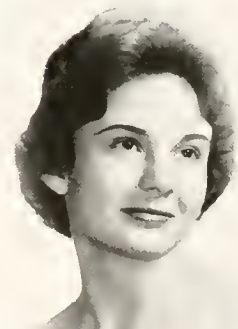

At the close of the program, the May Court sponsors did the traditional May Pole dance. This was followed by a grand finale of all those participating in the program.

Marshals

During the year Peace College has many activities in which the students, as well as outside guests, participate. These features are a vital and interesting part of our school life.

Here we present three of these activities, one representative of each of the phases of our college life: academic, Founder's Day; religious, Religious Emphasis Week; and social, Week-End of the Green. Each of these, and several other programs, are a traditional part of the functionings of Peace.

CTIVITIES

Dr. Pressly gives the Founder's Day Invocation as faculty, guests, and students stand.

Founders' Day

Academic procession led by Susan Pinyoun, Chief Marshal.

For the past few years, Peace College has observed Founders' Day in order to pay tribute to the founders, trustees, and previous administrations of the college.

The first Founders' Day in 1959 began by giving a brief history of Peace College. In 1960, tribute was paid to the Dinwiddie Administration which lasted from 1890-1907. This year the Stockard Administration was reviewed. Mrs. Marie Long Land, of Statesville, North Carolina, delivered the Founders' Day address. In her address she told about her years at Peace. One of the highlights of her speech was her detailed "eye-witness account" of the fly-paper joke perpetrated by the Peace students of her generation.

A Founders' Day tea was held in the dining room of Peace College. The first receiving line was composed of Dr. and Mrs. Pressly and relatives of the Stockard Administration.

Religious Emphasis Week was the most important event sponsored by the Peace Student Christian Association during the year. The traditional purpose of the week is to give the students in our Christian college community a number of days with time set aside for emphasis on religion. A church-related school is as busy as any other college community; and, even though there is an emphasis on religion throughout the year, this designated week gives opportunity to really widen the student's Christian horizons.

This year we were very happy to have Dr. A Purnell Bailey from Richmond, Virginia, as our guest speaker. Dr. Bailey is the well-known radio and newspaper personality who conducts daily devotionals and writes a column called "Daily Bread." He used as his theme "Power To Become," and we shared with him in this theme during three morning chapel programs and three evening vesper programs. Besides the main programs on his chosen topic, there were discussion groups in the afternoons with Dr. Bailey concerning anything those present wished to discuss. On Tuesday and Wednesday nights, after the vesper programs, the students divided into discussion groups, led by the male members of the faculty, so that any questions concerning Dr. Bailey's previous address might be discussed.

Dr. Bailey is outstanding for his private counselling; therefore, during this week, there was provided much time for personal conferences. We feel that this contributed much to the meaning of the week. The concluding event came on Thursday night after the Vesper program when the elders of the First Presbyterian Church, including Dr. Pressly, and Mr. Morgan assisted in the serving of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to the students, faculty, and guests of the college. The week was very inspiring to all.

Dr. Bailey gave much personal counseling while he was here.

Religious Emphasis Week

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed on the last night of Religious Emphasis Week

Weekend of

They're not the Kingstons, but they're mighty good!

Our own—the McGuire Sisters!

What would we do without the Embers?!

One of the gayest week ends of the spring semester was celebrated at Peace on March 16 and 17. The Week-End of the Green, with "The Roaring Twenties" as its theme, began on Friday night when Broadway came to Peace College in the form of a talent show. Immediately following the talent show, an informal dance was held in the Recreation Room. But that was only the beginning!

the Green

Saturday afternoon everyone twisted with The Embers at a combo party. Saturday night the Week-End of the Green ended with a semi-formal dance held at the Woman's Club. Music was supplied by the Danny Thompson Combo. After the dance students and their dates were welcomed at the college and were served doughnuts and coffee.

The Week end of the Green, long a tradition at Peace College to celebrate St. Patrick's Day and the beginning of Spring, will long be remembered by those who attended it this year.

Top hat, cane, and you name it!
